The Wrong and the Remedy.

The Wrong and the Remedy.

With indignation at the Slavery-extending Democrats, and a pitying sympathy for the free settlers of Kansas, will our readers continue the penual of the startling testimony taken before the Congressional Investigating Committee. There is nothing in the history of popular government, which will furnish a papallel to the audacious crime committeel against this wronged Territory, in the sacreal name of Democracy. Society should feel a shock to the centre, at this spectacle of the combination of the energies of a great Republican Government, with the brute force of the uncivilized suburbs of the slave-labor States, to compel a free Territory to accept the doctrines and economy of Human Bondage, and Unrecompensed Industry.

What is the remedy for the grievous wrong Kansas suffers under? Just that which the people of Kansas shall elect to apply. They are the principals in this suffering. We are but the agents of the application of their relief. The solution of the question of our duty to her may quickly be found in the substitution of ourselves in the place of her citizens, and the then self-addressed inquiry—what will we have? Not one man of us would accept the offer of Douglas's Bill—amended or unamended—endorsed and approved by internittingly Republican journals, or thrust nakedly upon us by Stringfellow & Co. That relief we would not have. It would not be relief, but an intolerable aggravation.—The endurance of the menaces of subjection to a Missouri mob, and to the Slave Power generally, would be far easier than to bear actual subjects the total colors of the Ruffians of the South-west, framed and appointed to abase us, and in the end exile us from the State.

There is not an honest and intelligent man of the property of the principal in the state.

of the Ruffians of the South-west, framed and appointed to abase us, and in the end exile us from the State.

There is not an honest and intelligent man of us, who would not prefer to see Kansas remain a Teritiony for the next quarter of a century, to having it pass into the Union as a State under the voke of Slavery, and the hand of Douglas.—Any inconveniencies, any dangers, any risk of foreign conquest, or of civil war, we, if we were the citizens of Kansas, would cheerfully undergo and dare, sooner than have its fame for one hour blackened with the bar sinister of a servile constitution. As good sons of our future mother State, we, New Yorkers, if in Kansas, would swear, that unless she entered the Union through the Topeka Convention, free, just and undisgraced, we would bar up the path altogether, and if need be, leave to our sons the duty of opening it, at a day when the right of self-government was acknowledged, and when Deigocracy and not Slavery ruled the great Republic.

The remedy prayed for by Kansas is her IMMEDIATE ADMISSION As I Fee State. It is the only remedy which can be applied for her case. It is a remedy which can be applied for her case. It is a remedy which can be applied for her case. It is a remedy which can be applied for her case. It is a remedy which can be applied for her case. It is nearly which can be applied for her case. BALLAD CONCERT.-The notice in our columns of performances on Wednesday and Thursday evening's at Military Hall, by Mr. and Mrs. L. V. H. Omsav, is, w me neverth, well worthy of attendance. Mr. Crosby is well known as a composer of ballade, and a musician of fine tulents. He has given concerts in the Southern and Eastern states, and in the Canadas, and we canno such that the second section is a second section in the second section in the second section in the second section is second section in the second section in the second section in the second section is not over much given olanding travelling troupes:

to lauding travelling troupes:

"Mr. Crosby is a capital singer, and possessing a native velo of humor above ordinary performers, is always enabled to make his entertainment interesting and evjoyable. As a composer of ballads, he is winning a golden reputation, and every song that leaves his fingers is anapped up by publishers who are willing to pay a handsone copywright. He has recently performed at Calcoper, to homes, litterally erammed, and has recently returned from a five week's engagement at Washington, which was accompanied with Cuttre success."

Extensive Successfron .-- Yesterday afternoon the Police arrested two respectably dressed German wemen for shoplifying. They had gone into several storts' principally Milliner sheps on Wisconsin Street, and inteach one stolen several articles. At Mrs. Nevicula, two head dresser, worth $5,00; at Mrs. Phelps', about $39 of elblory flowers and bonnets, one of the latter worth of rincos, newers and content, one of the father worth $14; at Bratz' they stole about $4 worth. Their houses were searched by the Police, and a large quantity of stolen property found, which is now in possesskin of the Police. They gave their names as Pfall and Hactic; are both married women. They were taken to the Watch House, and from there to juli.

HARPER FOR JUNE-WALLACE, ACSTON & Boxe, 25 Lake Street, Chlengo, send as the June mambe of Harpor, commencing bravely the thirteenth volume with a circulation of 160,000 copies. The number is a very interesting one; two articles alone, fliustrated, the "Sul-phur Springs of New York," and the," Observations of the U. S. " being amply worth the price of the volume. "Lit the Dorrit," Dickens' story, is continued, and Mr. Shanghat, from the city, tries country life to his complete satisfication, as exhibited in spirited pictures. Wilson, also, of this city, has sent us a copy of Harper, and is in receipt of his regular supply. "THE GREAT AMERICAN BATTLE,"-We are indebted to J. A. Henn & Co. for this hundsomely got up volume. It is the work of Anna Elia Carrell, a daughter of Ex-Clov. Carroll, of Maryland, and has been clothed in elegant garb by Miller, Orton & Mulligan, N. V. The ptper is white, the typography faultiess, the pertraits of Filt-more, Donelson, Brooks, Raynor and other magnates of the Know Nothing party remarkably good; but the text shelf is unmitigated frash. How a sensible woman could rite, or a somble man read and heed such nonzen, passes our comprehension. The revolutions of Maria Monk were plausible and reasonable compared with the vagaries of Anna Ella Carroll. THE AMERICAN RAILWAY MAP .- We BIG IO debted to the publishers, Ensign, liridgeman & Fanning, 156 William Street, New York, for a copy of their new American Railway Map. It is quite complete and reasonably accurate, showing all the completed and most of the perfected Rallways in the U. S., and a pretty intricate net-work it makes DRAYMAN.-WILLIAM Porr, who has been for many months to our employ, and proved himself honest and falliful, has set up in business as a Drayman, having purchared a stout horse, good harness, and capacious dray. His number is 157, and we commend him to all who eed a careful and honest Drayman.

JEWELEY AT AUCTION TO-SIGHT .- A very large lot of Jewelry, consisting of gold and silver watche, both for ladies and gentlemen, lockets, brooches, breast plus, ear rings, gold and silver chains, gold and silver pens and nell cases, &z., will be rold at Hood's Auction Rooms this and the two successive ovenings. This stock is one of the most costly, and comprises the best selection of Jewelry ever brought to the city for auction.

FRENCH RESTAURANT.-Mr. KIRSCH, who son months since kept a very good Restaurant on East Water Street, has removed to larger and pleasanter rooms on the N. E. corner of East. A REVENUE.

f Thou dream of Orlant clime,
Thou tream of olden time.
Haunting my sout like far off meludies
Sweet beyond compute,
And fail of fancies rare,
Kin lied to beauty "suits those Fastorn skies

Softward sweet and slow The Nie's bright waters flow, In Ingall morniums over the golden sand White earth and sky and stream Shire in this non-day dream, In all the glory of the Eastern lands.

No sound of rude niarm.
No roles to break the charm,
of stillness, brooding over the anitry noon
Save the droning water wheels,
Or the low note which steals
From berning insects murmaring in time.

Or some noft tinkling hell,
Alone of man may left,
Where the dark Arah watched by his head,
And in the sulry calm.
The broad feares of the palm.
Theread have of the palm.

Oh! Simbrons river Nile Thou dost my soil brigain To allowed drame, as hipse on thy there I see the blie bost Hiber and thither float, The Nubian boatman slumbering on his far.

Where the long scales cling,
The red flaming of wing,
Taches through arrange reds, with sudden gleats,
And closely neshing there,
Water likes pure and fair,
With soft faint income freight the silent stream.

Each flower its challes lifts.

From its much charcait gets.

From its pure back, a golden taper springs.

This the long back is bright.

With these of gold and white.

In steam of far, insumerable wings. So through the land of wing

Sweet rivers cide along,
Whose silvery harmodes my soul begoide;
Till wrapt in reveries deep,
I seem again to sleep—
To lie cutranted, 'mid billes of the Nilo. bray-Bay lathe Pineries. The Stevens Point Placen of the 10th inst gives the following pleasant account of May-Day in the Pineries:

The rinst day of May.—In this village, for want of good weather, was postponed to the 5th and such a May-day, such a laughing Queen, and such roay maids of honor!—well you should have been there. A couple of hundred boys and gils and half as many men and manmas, all ir, gill dress, filled to overflowing with happiness, romping in the grove, dancing round a May-pole, is not to be seen every day everywhers.

All in a shady bower came of the Clowning of the Queen, attended with specifies of the Maids of Honor, with rong and showing followed by the repast, spread out upon a "hundred" foot table. in the Pineries:

or monor, with roug and shouts; nonwead y the repeat, spread out upon a lampired foot table, leaded with cakes, pice, wandies, kisses and confectionary. The first of tempt to celebrate a time honored and joylons custom of the oldest time, it was a day long to be remembered in Stevens Paint. Noter morning smited so gaily.

Never skies such radiance were.

Never skies such radiance were.

Such a pindness beamed before.

Authenorid was light and music,

And we heard lays volces day;

Never danced into the smithing
